MAGAZINE

Top 25 Transport & Logistics Providers

Special Feature

Once again, Logistics Magazine presents a list of the top 25 Transport and Logistics providers in its October issue. Which are the nation's biggest earners? What is their net profit after tax, total assets, total liabilities shareholder funds and number of employees. These facts and figures are all in this month's Logistics.

Competition and consolidation in the provision of transport and logistics is intense. Our special report will also include interviews with top providers and an analysis of the industry as a whole.

Exclusive Profile

Dairy foods manufacturer Parmalat has taken a visionary approach to procurement by appointing one of the country's few chief procurement officers and committing resources to drive benefit for the organization.

Logistics Magazine speaks with Parmalat chief procurement officer Stephen Rowe, who was a keynote speaker at this year's Queensland Supply Chain conference.

PerformanceMeasurement

Technology

What is the link between strategy, performance measures and resulting behaviours?

By understanding what behaviours a set of performance measures are likely to drive, we can determine whether or not they are aligned with the goals of the organisation.

This month Logistics Magazine presents tips on how to assess and implement new performance measures from supply chain optimisation specialist GRA.

Feature Review

Exclusive: In 2006 the UK Department of Health changed the way oxygen was provided to home based patients. With delays, shortages and a reported death, the implementation made national headlines. At the same time, another similar project went off without a hitch.

With over three years experience in the management of outsourced projects Australian senior consultant Scott Lawler was involved in both UK projects. He analyses the outcomes for Logistics Magazine.

MercuryAwards

After an explosive inaugural year, Logistics Magazine's Mercury Awards are open for entries. Logistics professionals are driving a rapidly growing industry - increasingly the key to our nation's economic progress. Nominating your team for a Mercury Award is an excellent way of recognising the importance of supply chain management and the hard work your company has put in this year. Get in early with your application form!

Editor'sChoice

Products

The Editor's Choice section of the magazine is a great opportunity for suppliers to take advantage of having information on new products and equipment published in the magazine FREE OF CHARGE.

However, editorial space in the feature is at a premium, so get your editorial in early with a high resolution image to maximize your chances of being published.
